BEMIDJI
SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Join in the celebration of the Bemidji Symphony Orchestra's 81st Season!

We are pleased to announce our conductor, Dr. Beverly Everett, has renewed her contract and will continue to direct and challenge our musicians in order to provide the high quality musical performances we are known for in Greater Minnesota. Dr. Everett is widely respected in her field. She has received numerous awards and receives invitations to participate in prestigious events throughout the country and world. Her professional connections bring us some of the highest caliber guest artists such as Chris Brubeck, Aaron Meyer, Lucas Richman and Max Wolpert.

Bemidji Symphony Orchestra is a regional treasure, with people regularly attending from more than 100 miles away! The Bemidji Symphony Orchestra is comprised of more than 70 volunteer musicians, ranging from teenagers to adults in their seventies. Our annual season consists of six concerts and a special summer pops concert.

Our average concert audience attendance is more than 500 people. Among the many attendees are well educated, successful civic leaders, young professionals, senior citizens, and students. Approximately 40 children attend each concert, and the BSO provides free admission to children under 18 years of age. In addition to a concert season and summer pops concert, we offer educational programs and a concert in the schools.

The average cost to put on each concert is more than $18,000. As an independent 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, the BSO is funded through a robust mix of ticket sales, ad sales, donations and grants. Partner with the Bemidji Symphony Orchestra...there's something just for you!
